2011 David Reynaud Domaine Les Bruyères Crozes-Hermitage Aux Bêtises (France, Rhône, Northern Rhône, Crozes-Hermitage) $25

A blend of 70% Marsanne and 30% Roussanne that was aged, on lees, in concrete eggs, the 2011 Domaine Les Bruyères Crozes-Hermitage Aux Bêtises is a beautiful, rich white that delivers loads of fruit and texture, while staying classy, pure, and clean. Notions of golden fruits, flowers, vanilla crème, and baking bread all show on the nose, and it possesses a full, rich profile, that never seems heavy on the palate. Opening up nicely in the glass, it's an outstanding effort that will impress for 2-4 years, if not longer. (90 pts.)
